CONFRONTED BY A NEW PROBLEM

England Said to be Contemplating Naval Station in Bermuda.

TROUBLE EXPECTED.

Life of Monroe Doctrine May Be Involved by Change of Naval Policy of Other Nations.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Keen interest has been aroused in official circles here by a report reaching the State Department that Great Britain is contemplating a great naval base in the Bermuda Islands. It is authoritatively stated that the British government has made nquiry concerning the plans of the United States for protection of ther Panama Canal routes, and it has been suggested that this indicates an intention to safeguard British shipping through the Isthmus as is done in the Mediterranean.

Officials realized that the problem raised is a tremendous one, involving as it may the very life of the Monroe Doctrine and makng, perhaps, a complete revolution in foreign naval policy in the Western Hemisphere, for it is expected that if Great Britain changes her naval policy in American Atlantic waters, other European nations probably will follow suit. While these changes may be expected in the Atlantic waters an dthe West Indies, officials likewise realize that with the opening of the canal, the United States must contend with Japan for domination of the Pacific.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE.

A collision between the automobiles of C. T. Hellmuth and Louis Bargamin on the hil above Mt. Ida last night resulted in consierable damages to the lattter's car and some slight njuries to himself and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Bargamin were on their way to Washington but were compelled to leave the car on the road and return to this city.

Yesterday's Accidents.

New York, Aug. 4.—Thirteen persons are dead and many injured in and about New York today as a result of automobile accidents or drownings Sunday. Ten were drowned during the day. Eight were bathers. One was a child who fell from a boat, and Harry Davies, of Brooklyn, lost his lie in rescuing another.

In addition to the running down of the Pell automobile near Long Beach, resulting in two deaths, Henry Ezick, eight was run over and killed at Woodmere, L. I. Many others were injured in automobile accidents.

Not From Adam and Eve.

Bristol, Va., Aug. 4.—A negro minister whose claim to the African descent, judging from the inkiness of his complexion, will hardly be disputed, is holding a series of street meetings here, and in these meetings he has caused deep concern among the colored people lest they do not come into this world via the Garden of Eden. The minister asserts that Adam and Eve were not the first parents of the black race, and he thus brings this race clear of the forbidden fruit sory. He quotes scripture to show that his people are in nowise related to that branch of the human family descended from Adam and Eve. He is unable to give any positive light on the origin of his race, but is sure they will not have the Eden sin to answer for.

TO THE PUBLIC.

While thanking my friends for any suport they may have given me I desire to state emphatically that when I withdrew from the candidacy for Lieutenant-Governor I withdrew and did so in the intrest of Governor Ellyson and I am out of the race and in no way shape or form respon. the active support of any And I again appeal to my support Governor Ellyson ction.

Respectfully,
EX. J. WEDDERBURN.

The woman with whom he eloped with the wife of a highly respected minister of the Baptis church. She exposed Owens to the authorities in West Virginia, but later repented of his act when her old-time fondness for the adventurer returned. She went to Abingdon inquiring the cost of a divorce and stating her purposes to be divorced from her husband.

Owens, it is alleged carried away funds which he had collected for the proposed new church, when he took flight with Mrs. Blankenship, leaving his own wife and children behind, but it is now said that it was not proven that he had taken the money raised for church purposes.

MORE FROM DAVIDSON.

Styles Average Bishop "An Old Woman in Pants."

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 4.—Rev. Charles Steele Davidson, who caused a sensation a week ago by his spectacuar renunication of the ministry of the Episcopal Church, ppublicly burning his vestments and prayerbook, is being deluged with letters. The writers, almost without exception, he said, approve his course. Some offer financial aid. Invitatons have come to fill pulpits in the North, and one or more of these may be accepted in the near future. Mr. Davidson said:

"I had a statement to get before the world, and I got it. The substance has been burning in my soul for years What I want is a body of just, open-minded, intelligent people before me when I am telling my story in court.

"The church today is not open-minded and just. The average bishop is an old woman in pants. He has as much to do with the advance of Christ's kingdom among men as a bedridden old maid who was born blind and deaf and dumb.

"That investigating committee appointed by Bishop Randolph did every thing except investigate. One member is the rector of a church in Roanoke, which is the recognized gateway to society. It keeps the poor out of the kingdom hereafter. The second member was for a long time the nominal head of a church in Richmond, where one woman's money was both God and rector. Of the other member, who was also chairman, all men speak well. But the Bible does not speak well of those of whom all men speak well.

"The committee has suggested possible 'insanity' on my part period I would rather be insane than stupid. The Master and Apostles were in that company, according to the authority of contempoaneous church men. St. Paul was 'investigated,' and even thrown into jail, but he said. "They cannot prove those things,' and they never did.

"I have been persecuted for one year by bishop and priest and the money changers of the temple, and the American people will not stand for persecution. I want investigation They have begged and implore me to go away into the darkness. I am a in the open—not ebhind closed doors. dangerous man; therefore, I should jump into a hole and pull the hole in too. But I demand the light.

"I would not trust the decision of any tribunal over which Bishop Randolph or Bishop Tucker presided, nor any tribunal of their selection. But I will trust the decision—confidently—of any Virginia court. I will trust the people and the newspapers. "The church threw me out of a job and said, "Stay out until we are ready to take the matter up, and, in the meantime, let your wife and children starve as far as we are concerned.' My salary even for May and June has not been paid. My creditors, in justice to me, are entitled to this information.

"I knew that my friends would wonder that I did what I did when I did it. My wife even wondered, for she knew nothing of what had happened until she saw it in the newspapers. But she does not wonder now, and neither does the world, which is my audience. For I have a message for the world—not for a few praying members—' and the world will hear my message."

TEN COMPANIES OF MILITIA ON DUTY

Trouble With California Hop Pickers Viewed With Anxiety.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

Two Thousand Strikers Demand Increase in Wages—More Trouble Anticipated by Authorities.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 4.—Ten companies of militia, supplied with 2,000 rounds of ammunition, today were on duty at Wheatland, where four men, including District Atorney E. T. Manwell, were killed late yesterday in a pitched battle between the authorities and striking hop-pickers at the Durst Yards.

Six others were seriously wounded and are expected to die. The situation was extremely critical today, as it was understood fifty automobile loads of irate citizens from surrounding towns were being collected to go to Wheatland to oppose the strikers. All available deputies and police of nearby points were asked to hurry to Wheatland last night to aid in preservng order.

The trouble began with a strike meeting of hop-pickers, who demanded an increase in wages. Officers tried to arest several speakers and I. W. W. leaders prompted resistance.

Governor Johnson immediately ordered out ten companies of militia, under the command of Adjutant General Forbes. There are 2,000 strikers at Wheatland, and further trouble is expected.

KILLS WIFE IN RESTAURANT.

Rich Russian Plunges Knife Into Heart After Drinking a Toast.

St. Petersburg, August 4.—A tragedy occurred here the other night truly Russian in the horror of its details. A young man just 26 years of age, Named Grosher, the adopted son of a rich merchant of Moscow, entered the fashionable Taurida restaurant and ordered a private room. He was apparently in high good humor. After ordering a supper of the best the place could afford, he sent a messenger with a letter to his young and beautiful wife, inviting her to join him at the restaurant, and added that he had sent the most modest youth he could find, so that she, who he adored so much, would not be insulted by so much as a bold glance.

The young wife, happy in the thought of the evening that awaited her, hurried to the restaurant. Grosher received her with that flattering solicitude the well-born Russian knows so well how to assume. Champagne of the finest vntages was ordered, and the orchestra was commanded to play the most entrancing airs. The wine flowed freely, and while the musicians were playing that exquisite Russian thing, Forgotten Is the Tender Rose, the husband raised his glass in the presence of the manager, who acted as servitor, and cried 'I drink to the health of my beloved wife." Then he dashed the glass to the floor, seized a long knife and plunged it into his wife's heart. Grosher, wthout any further show of emotion, calmly waited for the police. He declined to give any motive for the crime when taken to the station. It is believed he is insane.

STAND BY TRAMPLER OF FLAG.

Officers of Fusilliers Resign as Protest Against Dismissal.

Saskatoon Sask., Aug., As the result of the flag incident here Friday in which the American flag was trampled in the dust by Canadian militia, all officers of the One Hundred and Sixth Fusilliers have resigned.

Their action comes directly as the result of the dismissal from their regiment of Lieutenant Atkinson, leader of the bugle band, who broke ranks to snatch the flags from the hands of a young American woman. The officers declared that they will take the case before the Imperial Parliament at London.

According to Lieutenant tAkinson, he was deliberately slapped in the face with the flag by the young woman.

"The woman slappe me in the face no less than three times before I took any notice of it," he declared. "I then broke ranks and threw the flag to the ground. I regarded the action as a deliberate insult to the uniform of the Fusilliers and I would do the same thing over again if the occasion offered."

ENGINEER FOUND DEAD NEAR TRACKS

Mystery Surrounds Death of William A. Moore Last Night.

SUSPECT FOUL PLAY.

Unfortunate Engineer Stark and Stiff With Terrible Wound on Right Side of His Head.

About 11 o'clock last night word was brought to the Union passenger station by Conductor Hutchison of the annex train that the body of a man was lying between the tracks of the Washington and Southern Railway a short distance north of Mushpot Road, near the city limits. A locomotive was dispatched to the scene and upon arriving at the spot the remains were found to be those of William A. Moore a well-known engineer, residing in this city. A terrible wound was found on the right side of his head and he was otherwise seriously injured. His railroad pass and one cent was found in his pockets.

The body was placed upon a locomotive and brought to this city.

The death of Engineer Moore is, so far, clouded in mystery. It was at first supposed he had boarded a train for this city and fell off, but no one could be found who saw him on a train or make any attempt to board one. The crew o fthe engine who examined the body before placing it on board the engine say the countenance of the dead man looked as though he had been engaged in a deadly struggle and the condition of the ground indicated that more than one person had been on it.

Mr. Moore had been taking his vacation recently, and how he came to be where found, if he had not been on a train, is puzzling.

The remains, after having been brought to this city, were taken to B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment, where an inquest will be held by Dr. R. J. Yates at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The railroad officials have ordered an investigation of all locomotives which passed over the tracks between Washington and this city last night. It is supposed by some that the unfortunate man was walking on the tracks and was struck by a train and killed.

Mr. Moore has not been on duty since July 20. He was a widower and is survived by four children. He was 49 years old. He became a fireman on the Southern Railway in 1897 and was made an engineer in 1901.

AFTER UNMUZZLED DOGS

Several Persons, White and Colored, Fined in the Police Court This Morning

Since the adoption by the City Council of the ordinance forbidding the running at large of unmuzzled dogs upon the streets a small percentage of persons owning such animals have complied with the letter and spirit of the law, but during the past few weeks it has been observed that in the majority of cases the law was being honored more by its breach than observance, and unmuzzled dogs had bcome scarce, although the usual number were running at large.

Officer Campbell yesterday summoned several persons, white and colored, to appear in the police Court this morning and show cause why they shoul not be fined for violating the law by allowing their canines to run at large minus muzzles, (wire or leather). When the court convened it was found that in most cases the delinquents had failed to obtain licenses, and they were told they could be fined $10. They were, however made to pay $5 each. Several parties summoned by the officer failed to appear. They will be arrested and made to leave collateral for their appearance tomorrow morning.

It is the intention of the police to summon all delinquents, and the law will be enforced; hence persons interested had better take due notice and act accordingly.

It is expected that the latter part of the month the dog wagon will be placed on the streets for the purpose of gathering in all unlicensed canines found roaming the streets without the required license, tag, or muzzle. Many dog owners in the city have not taken out a license.

WIFE BECOMES DESPERATE.

Lays in Wait For Spouse Outside Office of His Lawyer.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 4.—Desperate with love for the man she believed was preparing to sue her for divorce, Mrs. Phillip Winn armed herself Saturday afternoon and calmly waited outside the officer of Attorney Harry M. Smith, Jr., in the Traveler's Building, on East Main street, to kill her husband as he came out.

She had been waiting silently for perhaps half an hour when J. W. Erb, manager of the local branch of the Pinkerton Detective agency, passed her in the hallway on the way to his office. As he passed he noticed the gleam of a tiny revolver half hidden in her hand, and bethinking himself that tragedy was brewing, entered Mr. Smith's office to tell him that a strange woman was awaiting just outside. Phillip Winn immediately asked Mr. Erb to describe the woman.

"That's my wife," he said dramatically, as Mr. Erb finished. Mr. Smith wheeled around in his chair, and asked Mr. Erb if he would be kind enough to go out and disarm the woman. The detective left by an other door, and, approaching Mrs. Winn before she was aware of his presence, clasped the hand in which she carried the tiny weapon, and ...ed it from her. Mrs. Winn was ...all and frail to offer a strug... Mr. Erb experienced no difficulty.

After Mrs. Winn was disarmed, the police were notified that she was in the building with the very evident intention of committing murder, and an officer was hastily dispatched. When he arrived, however, the woman was gone.

She was later arrested and taken down to the First police station and there locked up. She reiterated her intention of killing her husband and the "dark haired woman," for she said that she couldn't be locked up always and would kill them when she was released.

FLAYS MINISTERS.

Dr. W. C. James and Rev. T. C. Skinner Criticized for Political Activity.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 4.—A severe arraignment by S. Gordon Cumming, candidate for the attorney-generalship, of two Richmond Baptist ministers, the Rev. W. C. James, of the Grove Avenue Baptist church, and the Rev. T. Claggett Skinner, of the Second Baptist Church, for using their religious influence to secure votes for John Garland Pollard, featured the speaking of State candidates Saturday night before the Lee Ward Democratic club. Mr. Cummings did not mention the two ministers publicly by name, but disclosed their identity to reporters after he had scored them on the stand.

He declared that he had copies of circular letters signed by these two ministers, written on paper bearing the letter-heads of the two churches, addressed to the voters of Virginia in behalf of the candidacy of Mr. Pollard. Mr. Cumming unwearied by his previous address yesterday at Kenbridge, returned to the attacks of his two opponents last night with more vigor than he has shown in any of his campaign speeches to this time. Referring to the action of Dr. James and Dr. Skinner, he said:

"What right has any minister to use his religious influence to advance the political ambitions of any man? It is directly contrary to the wise provision for the separation of State and church so dear to the heart of Thomas Jefferson and the signers of the Declaration of Independence. If these letters, say, had been written on the letter-head of the Sacred Heart Cathedral urging my candidacy or that of any other aspirant for political honors, there would have arisen immediately a storm of shouting from Accomac to West Virginia. When ministers attempt to come down from the pulpit and mingle in political affairs, they endanger the autonomy of the state and threaten political freedom."

SEVERE STORMS IN VIRGINIA.

Wind, Hail, and Rain Cause Heavy Damage.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 4.—Richmond was Saturday morning swept by a gale of seemingly cyclonic velocity, which for a time threatened to do serious damage.

While at its height the wind seemed fierce enough to wreck the whole town, and to add to the apprehensions, which some of the citiens felt, the fire bells began to ring in the midst of the blaze. The blaze however, happened to be a small one. The wind was accompanied by rain.

Amherst, Va., Aug. 4.—A terrific storm of wind, hail, rain thunder and lightning passed over this section Friday afternoon. Shade trees in the ccurthouse yard were completely demolished and the telephone wires were a perfect wreck. Corn and tobacco were also injured considerably.

Spottsylvania, Va., Aug. 4.—A violent electrical storm passed over this vicinity Friday night breaking the intense heat and long drought. The rain fell in torrents for two hours or more. During the storm, a large newly built barn, belonging to John T. Coleman, containing his crops of hay, wheat and oats, and large number of costly agricultural machinery, was entirely destroyed by lightning.

Bowling Green, Va., Aug. 4.—During a severe electrical storm here Friday night lightning killed Robert Baylor, colored, who lived near New London, and shocked his wife. Baylor was sleeping on the floor and the bolt came down the chimney and killed him instantly, but did no damage to the house.

AUTOISTS DROWNED.

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 4.—Crashing through an open drawbridge over Everetts Creek at Reeds Ferry, 5 miles from Suffolk, an automobile load of young people of Smithfield, Va., went to the bottom of the deep stream at 8 o'clock last night. Two of the party, Miss Dorothy Ward, daughter of D. W. L. Ward, of Isle of Wight county, and Taylor Nelms, 21 years old, son of George K. Nelms, of Smithfield, were drowned.

The car was driven by Don Ward, 19 years old. When the car approached the drawbridge, young Ward, who was driving rapidly, saw the red light attempted to put on the brakes, but they failed to work, and the car went over the bridge. Ward saved Miss Gladys Cofer and Miss Lucy Cofer, being abe to swim, got ashore. Nelms, who was trying to save Miss Ward sank with her in his arms ebfore he reached the shore.

FORMER SENATOR LEWIS H. MACHEN.

Is the only candidate from Northern Virginia for any state office. Though he has made his home in Alexandria for nearly twelve years, he is a native of Fairfax county. Former Senator Donohoe, who was recently State Auditor of Public Accounts, by appointment by Governor Mann, and who is the editor of the Fairfax Herald, has this to say about Mr. Machen in the last issue of the Herald:

Lewis H. Machen.

Hon. Lewis H. Machen, a native of Fairfax county, a lawyer of acknowledged ability and a gentleman who is thoroughly acquainted with the legislative matters and needed reforms, is a candidate of rthe office of Lieutenant governor. No man could fill the office with more credit or ability, and he should receive the unanimous vote of his county. A large vote for him in this county would be a merited compliment to a son of old Fairfax, and a contribution to the cause of good government.

DROWNED WHILE WRESTLING.

Two Young Men Go Overboard From Bay Schooner.

Cape Charles, Va., Aug. 4.—Carlton Pleasants, of Federal, N. C., employed on the schooner Harry C. Brown, in charge of Capt. J. F. Evans, of Harborton, Md., was drowned yesterday near Old Plantation Light, a few miles from Cape Charles. Pleasants was on deck with Captain Evans' son, wrestling. Thenr feet became tangled in a halyard and both of the young men went overboard. Evans' feet stayed fast in the rope, and his father, hearing his cries, rushed out of the cabin and put the schooner about, but before he could reach Pleasants he went down for the last time.

When Evans was rescued he was very weak and was with difficulty revived, while the body of Pleasants could not be found.

Pleasants was without relatives and was given employment by Captain Evans in Norfolk only a short while ago, having come from North Carolina to ship on some bay-sailing vessel. He was 21 years old.

KIDNAPS CHILD.

Husband Steals Infant From Wife and is Tramping.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 4.—Guy M. Wardell, of Lynchburg, is tramping over the state with his 13-months-old infant, according to Mrs. Wardell. She claims he kidnapped the child at Burkeville last week.

Wardell married several years ago and afterwards was sent to jail for horse stealing. A few weeks ago he induced his wife to return to him and they went to Richmond. There, she asserts he deserted her. She started for her parents' home here, but her husband appeared and induced her to leave the train at Crewe. They went to Burkeville, and on Monday she claims, he snatched the infant from her and caught the train for Lynchburg. He could not pay his fare and with the baby in his arms was ejected from the train 10 miles from the city.

CHILD SWALLOWS POISON.

Two-Year Old Boy Dies After Draining Bottle of Acid.

Pulaski, Va., Aug. 4.—Information received here tells of the death of Wm. St. Clair, the two-year-old son of Daniel M. St. Clair and grandson of Hon. Peyton St. Clair, which occurred a few days ago at the family home, in Giles county, as a result of drinking carbolic acid. The child alone in the living room secured a bottle containing the poison, pushed the cork into the bottle and drank the contents. The father, who had just been called from the room, hearing the child's cry, ran to the room to find it in agony. His death soon followed.

Commits Suicide.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 4.—Charles Diamond, 24 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. aJcob Diamond, is dead at his home in this city as the result of a pistol shot through his right temple.

The young man, according to statements of members of his family, was subject to periods of temporary mental unbalance and it is thought that he took his life while in one of these

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

JOINS FORCES WITH REV. DAVIDSON.

The recent attack upon the Episcopal Church by Rev. Mr. Davidson, who burned his vestments and prayer book in front of Monticello recently and invoked the shade of Thomas Jefferson, has set another wire in motion. Rev. George Chambers Richmond, of Philadelphia, whose recent flash in the pan had about been forgotten, has added to his recent disrespectful language towards the Bishops and those contributing towards the work of the Episcopal Church in the United States. The latter's language is harsh and is by no means the fruit of the Spirit. Davidson has also discharged another key cannon. The utterances of both clergymen will be found elsewhere in the Gazette.

It is said that when Martin Luther started out on his crusade that Leo X sad, "Brother Martin has a fine intellect." Will the same be said of the present bolters from orthdoxy?

It has been surmised that certain seceders from churches have in times past imagined their genius was not understood, and in some cases a slight elevation has cured their distemper effectually. A wily carnial when the flame started by the great German reformer was gathering force suggested in a confernce of prelates. "Why not make the monk a bishop?"

The late John Newman suffered pique for some time. He, too, was ignored while others of less light were elevated. He however, had the good sense to await a time with patience until his time came.

The Episcopal clergymen alluded to at the beginning of this article had doubtless reached their ne plus ultra. They grew weary of modest positions and would probably never have been more than ciphers. True greatness consists in one being able to accommodate himself to all conditions. He that is unfaithful in the least will be unfaithful in that which is greatest. Solemn words, but uttered substantially by One Who knew whereof He spoke.

"RENDER TO CAESAR"

The severe censure administered to certain ministers of the Gospel for political activity in Virginia by a candidate for a state position, published elsewhere in the Gazette, should prove an admonition to certain gentlemen of the cloth who persist in making themselves conspicuous and often cheap in the eyes of the world by grasping lances and entering into the field in behalf of candidates of their own liking. The minister has much to lose by such sallies and nothing to gain. Like the candidates whose causes they espouse, they, too, become public property and targets, and the institution they represent invariably suffers.

That the minister is out of his place in the political arena should be apparent. The early propagators of the faith kept aloof from political issues, following the example of the Great Teacher when he uttered these memorable words, "Render to Caesar," etc.

It has been suggested that Paul wrote the Epistle to the Romans when Nero, the most detestable of all potentates, was Emperor of Rome. While no condemnation whatever is found of the powers that be in the missive, the writer urges those to whom he wrote to uphold officers of the state, and to render tribute to whom tribute is due.

The admixture of politics and religion has proven a failure from time immemorial and the action of certain preachers not only causes bad blood in communities, but they add no little in bringing about discord in the church universal.

Woman Fatally Shot.

Salem, Mass., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Barbara Ramoni, of 287 Rantoul street, Beverly was shot and fatally wounded at her home this morning by Emanuel Mageti, thirty-five, and is dying at the hospital. Mageti jumped on a bicycle and escaped. A general alarm is out for him.

RENOUNCE TOBACCO GROWING.

Farmer Tears Down Curing Shed in Belief Weed is an Evil.

Lancaser, Pa., Aug. 4.—Acting under the belief that tobacco is injurious to humanity, and that it is sinful to grow it, Simon B. Linnich, near Landisville, has just tore down his big tobacco barn, one of the finest in Lancaster county, so that no matter what the temptation is, hereafter, he will not be in a position to grow a crop.

To the Ney folks rattlesnakes are worth $5 to $1 each as they find ready sale for the fat, skin and flesh, the latter being used for medicinal purposes for consumptives.

DIE IN MOSQUE BATTLE.

Cawnpore Natvies Fought Against Demolishing of Structure

Calcutta, Aug. 4.—The demolition of a mosque at Cawnpore for street improvements, which had caused indignation meetings to be held in many parts of India and Burmah, led to the riotings at Cawnpore yesterday. A processions of natives visited the mosque and began replacing the bricks of the partly demolished edifice.

An attempt to disperse tthe gahering resulted in a conflict with the police, who fired a volley into the crowd killing thirteen persons and wounding 3. One policeman was shot and 40 others were injured.

(Paid Adverttisemen.)

Richmond, Va., July 30, 1913.

Dear Bother:—Three gentlemen have entered the primary race for Liuetenant-Governor.

The Anti-Saloon League has questioned these genelemen as to how they would vote on the Enabling Act, iif the question should come before them, and has published their replies in the State press. This ends the work of the League as an organization, so far as the Lieutenant-Governor is concerned.

Knowing your grea interest in the Temperance cause, I want to say to you as a friend and citizen that I believe with all my heart that the Temperance interests of Vrginia will be best conserved by the election of Mr. Ellyson.

Mr. Ellyson has made no blowing horn of his principles for political purposes, but for many years he has been a consistent temperance man, and throughout his public career has been a frend upon whom we could rely.

Should Mr. Ellyson be re-elected, we would have a Lieutenant-Governor who would not only vote for the enabling act,but would, throughout his official term,be a friend in every way consistent with his character and position.

My convictions are so strong in this matter that I am writing you this information with the urgent request that, if possible, you vote for Mr. Ellyson and do all within your power to give him a great majority.

Very cordially yours.

GIRL ACCUSES VICE CRUSADER.

Lace Mill Operator Charges he is the Father of Her Child.

Lynbrook, L. I., Aug. 4.—The Little court house here was thronged yesterday when 18-year-old Florence B. Haff, an operator in a lace mill, testified that the father of her baby born December 1, was W. P. W. Haff, a wealthy dealer in coal, editor, evangelist, politician and vice crusader. The question of the child's paternity arose when the overseer of the poor sought to arrange for its support.

Haff says the girl's story is preposterous and he ascribes the proceedings to enemies he has acquired in his political fights and his vice crusades. Haff and the girl who accuses him are not related, notwithstanding their names are the same.

The girl said she had met Haff in April, 1912. She said they had several automobile rides together, and produced two notes designating a meeting place and signed "H. and W." These she said, came from Haff, who will testify he nevor wrote them.

As an evangelist he has preached in many churches, although he has never been ordained. He is called the "business evangelist", and he is now occupying the pulpit of the First Baptist Church at Patchogue.

The hearing will be continued on August 7th.

FEVER SPREAD BY PREVENTIVE

Vaccine is Blame for Outbreak of Typhoid in Bristol.

Bristol, Va., August 4.—The impression has been gaining in the last few days that vaccine used to prevent typhoid fever in this city is at the bottom of a number of cases that have developed. Former Mayor Gammon used the vaccine on his children, and three of the four are now down with typhoid. Two developed the fever after they had received the third treatment, and a third developed the fever after receiving a second treatment.

If the fever is due to the vaccine, it is likely to become epidemic here, as a number of families have used it.

Former Mayor Gammon said that the rumor that 600 cases have developed in Bristol is absolutely without foundation. "There are," he said, "probably not more than twenty-five fever cases in Bristol at present.

Other physicians confirm the statement that the fever is not epidemic here.

NEGRO HOLDS UP WOMAN.

Highwayman Boldly Robs Victim in Her Confectionery Store.

Richmond, Aug. 4.—While dozens of people were passing on the sidewalk just a few feet away, an unidentified negro yesterday morning, at the point of a pistol, held up and robbed Miss Mary Joseph in her confectionery store at 925 North Twenty-ninth street, according to a report she later made to the police.

No customers were in the place when the negro, who was described as being tall and black, entered and he and Mss Joseph were the only occupants.

Asked what he desired, the black politely requested that he be given a $5 note in exchange for $5 in change. Miss Joseph turned to her cash drawer, took out the bill, and as she turned, she found the muzzle of a revolver just a few inches from her face.

"Give me that money," the negro commanded, and Miss Joseph was forced to obey. Without another word, the highwayman backed towards the door, opened it without interference and disappeared.

FAVORS LOCAL ASSESSMENT.

Moore Says Board at Richmond Could Not Fix Values in Various Counties.

Richmond, Aug. 4.—Auditor Lee Moore has issued the following statement, giving his views on a local tax board rather than a State Board of Equalization. He says:

"In my opinion a board of equalization at the seat of government could not fairly and justly fix the values of real estate and tangible personal propetry throughout the state. Such a board must be dependent in a great degree on the judgment of othrs for fixing these values. Values of live stock vary in the different sections of the State. The same is true of real estate. Adjoining farms vary materially in value.

"For many reasons the power to assess is too far removed from the property and from the people interested and vitally concerned, and it appears the plan is impracticable and impossible of satisfactory and just operation.

"Let every county and city be dependent for its revenue upon the assessment of property within its boundaries, and I venutre to predict the result will be assessments nearer true and uniform value than ever before and values assessed in a county or city would not affect the values assessed in another county or city."

In the midst of a dense throng of shoppers at Fifth Avenue and Thirtieth street, New York, Abram Fink, a jewelery salesman of Buffalo, shot and serously wounded Bessie Silverman and then killed himself. The motive for the shooting, say the police, is that the woman was tiring of Fink and her mode of life and was planning to leave it. She had met "a decent man," she said, who wanted to marry her, and she decided to leave the old surroundings as the first step in her reformation.
